WHAT DOES NATIONAL BENEFIT LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal and state laws give consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. These laws also require us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

Examples of the personal information we collect and may share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and checking account or credit card information
- Transaction history and medical information
- Driver's license number and contact information

How?

All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons National Benefit Life chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

| Reasons we can share your personal information  | Does NBL Share? | Can you limit this sharing? |
